

A Decade of International Development Projects 1997-2007
Canmore Rotary Club donated $100,000 toward projects costing $2,000,000

1. Canmore Rotary Club (RC) Projects in Partnership with the Rotary Foundation (RF):

Upendo Leprosy Home, Maji Ya Chai, Tanzania - matching grant program, $5000 club funds matched up to $42,000

Rotary Foundation 3-H Grant (Health, Hunger and Humanity) in partnership with Guelph, Brampton and Arusha, Tanzania for educational, water, health, and agricultural projects. Canmore gave $11,000 toward the $35,000 clubs' seed money and the RF contributed $635,000.

Rotary Volunteer Grants 2x $4,200 for a nurse and a physiotherapist to spend one month teaching medical care and rehabilitation of leprosy patients.

Humanitarian Transportation Grant, $7900 from the RF to buy, fill and ship a sea-going container to the Arusha RC. Local surplus medical supplies and educational materials were given to the Arumeru Health District and the Network Against Female Genital Mutilation (NAFGEM).

2. Projects with RF support to which Canmore RC made cash contributions to the recipient club or district directly:

Tsunami Relief Thailand (a $1,000,000 Thai Rotary District Project supported by the RF). $12,000 raised by Canmore RC to build 4 homes.

Woman's Market Educational Program in Arusha, Tanzania $3000.

Polio Plus $10,000+

3. Projects Without RF participation. Canmore RC contributions approximately $61,000. Many projects were in partnership with a supporting Non-Governmental Organization (NGO):
